

Ruth Fierro-King

AAUW-NYS Treasurer

Ruth Fierro-King, VP. HSBC, N.A. in the Business Banking Group in Buffalo, New York. She previously worked for Key Bank for 16 years in various leadership roles, most recently in the Wealth Management Private Banking Group. Ruth has an extensive background in the financial industry as a financial advisor, lender and managing large business relationships.

Ruth resides in Williamsville, New York with her husband Mark. She has three children all in college at this time.

Ruth has been involved with the American Association of University Women –Buffalo Branch for the last five years. She is a member of the Buffalo Branch Board as the Financial Chair of the organization.

Ruth has a strong commitment to the American Association of University Women’s mission and works to support the financial stability of the organization. She has been the Treasurer of AAUW- NYS for the last two years. Under her guidance the organization has implemented changes that provide the appropriate financial reports on a timely basis.

Ruth is involved with several community organizations that support education, family health and equality. She is a board member of several sales and business development organizations that support the growth of women in the financial industry.