

American Association of University Women
New York State Convention 2013

A Healthy and Happy New Year to All AAUW NYS Members!

Karen Carr and Jean Havens are planning an exciting 2013 State Convention at High Peaks in Lake Placid the weekend of April 26 to 28. The theme will be 'Focus on the Future: Reaching for High Peaks.'

Plan to register early to attend and while you are there, tour the beautiful Lake Placid area, historic Olympic sites and the Olympic Center and Museum. Be sure to indicate your selections for workshops and dinner entrée on page two of the registration form. Student AAUW members will also be encouraged to attend the convention. Karen has created a special student registration package so more students will be able to participate.

Lisa Maatz, the AAUW director of public policy and government relations, has been invited to be our keynote speaker on Friday night. She will inform us about AAUW's public policy efforts to promote our mission of equity for women and girls.

At the convention you will be able to take advantage of the program which will focus on student members, public policy, college / university relations, community support for the aging and life balance. We can also enjoy the music of the group called Sounds of the Northway as they entertain us with songs about women's issues.

For those members who don't want to drive, Amtrak offers an option for getting to Lake Placid by train and bus.

We hope to see you at convention where you can enjoy the workshops and inspiring speakers, share with other AAUW members, and make new AAUW friends.

SATURDAY WORKSHOPS A-D (2:30 pm – 3:30 pm)

A. STEM – Oriented Day Camp for Girls: A Branch Success Story!

Dr. Sandy Flank and Roli Wendorf of the Westchester Branch will share tips for a branch success story in developing, organizing and implementing a day-camp for girls focusing on science, technology, engineering, and mathematics.

B. Helping Our Communities to Respond to “Aging in Place”

Mercy Care of the Adirondacks is responding to address the health, education, spiritual and friendship needs of elders living in their own homes. Donna Beal and Sheila Schneck will talk about the services of Mercy Care of the Adirondacks and also their work with communities to develop the vision, plans and programs that will support “aging in place.”

C. Turning Oppression into Opportunity

Last fall, Melissa Guardaro (AAUW rep to the UN), Heather White (Dir. of the Women of Grace Widows Fund), and Erin Bassney (Clarkson University student) participated in a live panel discussion which was aired by WPBS Watertown to launch the PBS viewing of Half the Sky. These amazing women will again be joined by moderator Andrea Pedrick to talk about turning oppression into opportunity for women across the globe and here in our own communities.

D. Project Have Hope

Karen Sparacio, founder of Project Have Hope, will talk about the project's mission to empower women in Uganda's Acholi Quarter and the many achievements of this organization: sponsorship of children in school, women artisans, adult programs in literacy and vocational training. You will learn how you and AAUW can help.

AAUW COLLEGE UNIVERSITY RELATIONS (3:45 pm – 5:00 pm)

College Presidents Anne Kress (Monroe Community College), Carole McCoy (Jefferson Community College) and Carli Schiffner (SUNY Canton) will discuss their commitment to "equity for women and girls" and the synergy that develops on campus from their partnership with AAUW.

DINNER, INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS (7:00 pm – 8:00 pm)

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: NYS ASSEMBLYWOMAN ADDIE JENNE RUSSELL (8:00 pm – 9:00 pm)

Addie Jenne Russell represents the 118th Assembly District, also known as the "River District." Ms. Russell was formerly an attorney at Conboy, McKay, Bachman & Kendall, LLP, and served on the Jefferson County Board of Legislators from 2006 to 2009. Ms. Russell is a past President of the Jefferson County Branch AAUW and former member of AAUW New York State's Public Policy Committee.

SUNDAY, APRIL 28

COUNTERPART BREAKFAST (7:30 am – 9:00 am)

This is an opportunity for training and networking between state and branch officers. Other attendees will be able to talk informally with the speakers and with members from branches across the state.

SUNDAY WORKSHOPS E-H (9:15 am – 10:15 am)

E. Domestic Violence Survivors Justice Act

Jaya Vasandani, Associate Director of the Women in Prison Project, will talk about how DVSJA would affect both current domestic violence survivors who are incarcerated and survivor defendants after the bill is passed.

F. Women of the World

Melissa Guardaro, AAUW Representative to the UN, and Geeta Desai, IFUW representative to the UN, have been travelling and working in support of women from around the world. Come listen to their reflections on the status of women in the global environment and the good work being accomplished by the United Nations.

G. Today's College Student

A panel of current college students will discuss campus life, challenges, and the opportunities AAUW offers them to be involved in supporting equity for women and girls. Moderated by NYS AAUW College and University Director Jeri Fairman.

H. From Page to Stage: Bullying Prevention and the Arts

Ann Marie Gardinier Halstead will discuss the origins and production history of her new play Have You Filled a Bucket Today? based on the concepts of Carol McCloud's award-winning children's books. Highlighting the importance of anti-bullying programming and the role that the arts can play in delivering a timely and crucial message. For more information, please visit the official web site for the play: <http://www.bucketfillingplay.com/>

SOUNDS OF THE NORTHWAY (10:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.)

This entertaining singing group from the Plattsburgh area will perform historical and popular songs dear to mothers, daughters, sisters and wives; songs about love and life – laughter and living.

BUFFET LUNCHEON 12:00 noon – 1:00 p.m.

LAF FUNDRAISER GUIDELINES

The LAF Fundraiser has become a fun tradition at the convention, providing a social venue, friendly competition, and an opportunity to raise funds for women fighting sex discrimination in the workplace. In the past, we have auctioned baskets and raffled purses. This year, we are giving greater freedom to the branches in choosing the types of items they submit. A submission could consist of a basket, a purse, or something else. For each submission, the contributing branch can also choose whether to get it raffled or auctioned.

The rules to participate are simple:

- Each branch can enter up to 3 items (purse, basket, or something else).
- Prior information is necessary for entry: how many items to be entered, what they are, their titles, and whether they will be auctioned or raffled. Information should be sent to Roli Wendorf by the deadline: FRIDAY MARCH 29, 2013.
- A 4x6 card should be attached to each item giving the title, a brief description, the contents if any, the name of the contributing branch, and whether the item will be raffled or auctioned.
- All items must be in the Display Room by 5 PM Friday, April 26, 2013.

Drawing tickets for raffled items will be available in the Display Room at a cost of $10 for 2. The minimum starting bid for an auctioned item will be $20, with minimum increments of $5. The winners of auctioned items will pay at pickup time, cash or check – check preferred. The money made by each item will be credited to the branch that contributed the item. The Display Room hours for viewing items and bidding on Friday and Saturday will be provided in the convention schedule.

The winners can pick up the items during Sunday breakfast. All items must be picked up by 10 AM on Sunday April 28, 2013. We look forward to your entries, and to a fun event!

To enter and for questions, please contact: Roli Wendorf, AAUW-NYS LAF VP

BRANCH EXHIBIT AREA – Deadline April 12, 2013

Displays in the Branch Exhibit Area at the NYS AAUW Convention are a popular way for each branch to share accomplishments, ideas and wares with other branches. The Branch Exhibit Area is a place for members to meet people from other parts of the state and enjoy a spirit of camaraderie as they share information and ideas. The guidelines are few and the rewards are many.

This year we encourage each branch to reserve a half table for displays, handouts and sale items. Keep in mind that the Branch Exhibit Area is unsecured. Display posters should be free standing or on a storyboard.

DETAILS:

1. Each branch should set up its exhibit and sales between 12:00 noon and 6:00 pm on Friday, April 26.
2. Do not display items before 12:00 noon when the area is officially opened and branch areas have been designated.
3. The branch is required to have one or more of its members stay with the exhibit during the official hours the ‘Branch Exhibit Area’ is open if items are ‘For Sale’ or at anytime items of value are displayed at the table.
4. The ‘Branch Exhibit Area’ will be open on Friday, April 26 from 4:30 pm to 6:00 pm. It will also be open on Saturday, April 21 from 4:30 pm to 6:30 pm. Sales will take place during these times and tables must have a branch member in attendance.
5. Exhibits will be on display all of the time.
6. Branches should remove their posters and sale items by 10:00 pm on Saturday.
7. The form below should be returned by April 12, 2013, to: M. DeWitt, AAUW , 157 w 79TH Street, NYC 10024-6000 or via e-mail to aauwmanhattan@aol.com , attention M. DeWitt – Display Table Reservations. Questions: 516/318-1313

READ GIRLS LIKE US

Girls Like Us, the inspiring memoir of GEMS Founder and Executive Director Rachel Lloyd, provides powerful insight into the commercial sexual exploitation and domestic trafficking of girls and young women.

Please join the Girls Like Us campaign to break down barriers between survivors of commercial sexual exploitation and the people who care about this issue and want to support them!

We are offering a chance to raise money, get some exercise and gain a little sparkle in the meantime.
