This booklist was compiled by the St. Lawrence County Branch of the American Association of University Women with the help of Sarah Sachs, the children's librarian at the Potsdam, NY Public Library.

Most of the books on this list address some aspect of women's history for young readers. The 2010 book list represents our second annual list; the first list was compiled to celebrate the 50th anniversary of AAUW's Educational Fund, which conducts research in educational issues affecting women and girls and provides scholarships to women graduate students. Please consider making a tax-deductible donation to AAUW's Educational Fund to support our important mission.

In 2009, AAUW donated several books for young readers on women's history to the Potsdam Public Library. We hope to maintain a tradition of donating money and books towards building this specific aspect of the library's collection, and we hold special events in March—Women's History Month—to raise awareness of this public service aspect of our work.

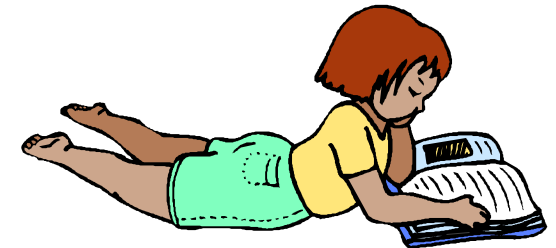

For more information on donating to or becoming a member of our branch, contact AAUW St. Lawrence County Branch President Lisa Wilson at 353-2513 or lwilson17@aol.com.
