

2012 AAUW-NYS Emerging Leader Award

AAUW provides a platform for developing new leaders. The 2012 AAUW-NYS Emerging Leader Award will recognize one new AAUW member from each branch who demonstrates leadership potential through her enthusiasm, creative ideas and commitment to AAUW's mission.

We are asking each branch in New York State to select one person only who has shown through her actions and ideas that she should be selected as the branch's Emerging Leader. Each honoree will be recognized by AAUW-NYS at the 2012 State Convention.

Please provide the following information as well as a brief (100 word) description of why your honoree should be recognized as a 2012 AAUW-NYS Emerging Leader. The application with a brief bio and a photo of the awardees must be mailed or emailed by February 15, 2012. Send to:

Joan Monk, District Council Director
18 Devonshire Drive, Yorktown Heights, NY 10598
Telephone # (914) 245-7704, Email: ftmaven@bestweb.net

Please type or print all information:

Branch: _____ District _____

Name of your Branch Emerging Leader _____

Her address: _____

Home Phone Number: (_____) _____

Work/Cell Phone Number: (_____) _____

Email: _____

Name of person making the nomination: _____

Branch position of person making the nomination: _____

Phone Number: (_____) _____

Email: _____

Please include the following: In 100 words or less, describe why you feel this individual should be recognized as the 2012 Emerging Leader from your branch. Include any offices that she holds on your Board of Directors, committee chairmanships, or other positions of leadership within your branch. Describe any programs and ideas she has presented and roles of responsibility she has assumed. If possible, please also include a photo for use on the AAUW-NYS website and at the convention. _____
