

SEVEN - a documentary play

two performances in Chautauqua County

"Seven" has been performed to acclaim in 32 countries and 22 U.S. states. It is a documentary play based on true stories told by women who have overcome oppression or serious adversity and gone on to help others to overcome similar struggles through mentoring, volunteering, and working for people in need. Read by regional leaders and college and university students, SEVEN features seven stories told by women in the Chautauqua County area and seven stories by women from around the world.

Performance Dates:

SUNY Fredonia: Rosch Auditorium, October 8, 6-8:30 pm

Jamestown Community College: Scharmman Theatre, October 14, 6-8pm

See more about SEVEN: <http://seventheplay.com>

Free and open to the public.