

Meet
Judicial Candidates

at the

AAUW Islip area branch meeting

Monday, October 19, 2009, 7:00

at Bay Shore/ Brightwaters Library

Judicial candidates will be telling us about their background, how they view the Judicial System in our society and more. You will have the opportunity to speak with them.

We'll also celebrate

Eleanor Roosevelt's

125th birthday

with the Islip Area Players presenting Lisa Blau's Reader's Theatre Eleanor Roosevelt: The First Lady of the World and Eleanor Roosevelt will make remarks and cut the cake

ORGANIZING THE FORUM-Judicial candidates' names and addresses were obtained from County Board of Elections, County & Town Republican & Democratic Committees. Letters were sent in late July, follow up letters in late August, emails in September, all invited came. Questions were developed and were the basis for the above description-Flyer posted in communities

Nancy Mion, NYS & Islip Public Policy Director